A YEAR OF BEGINNINGS

New faces . . . new friends . . . new administrators a year of change. When students entered the halls of PHS in the fall many changes greeted them. A new principal, new assistant principal, new policies — it would be a great year of introspection and examination. The quarter system would be scrutinized as well as the feasibility of remaining single A status. A new addition was the planning stages.

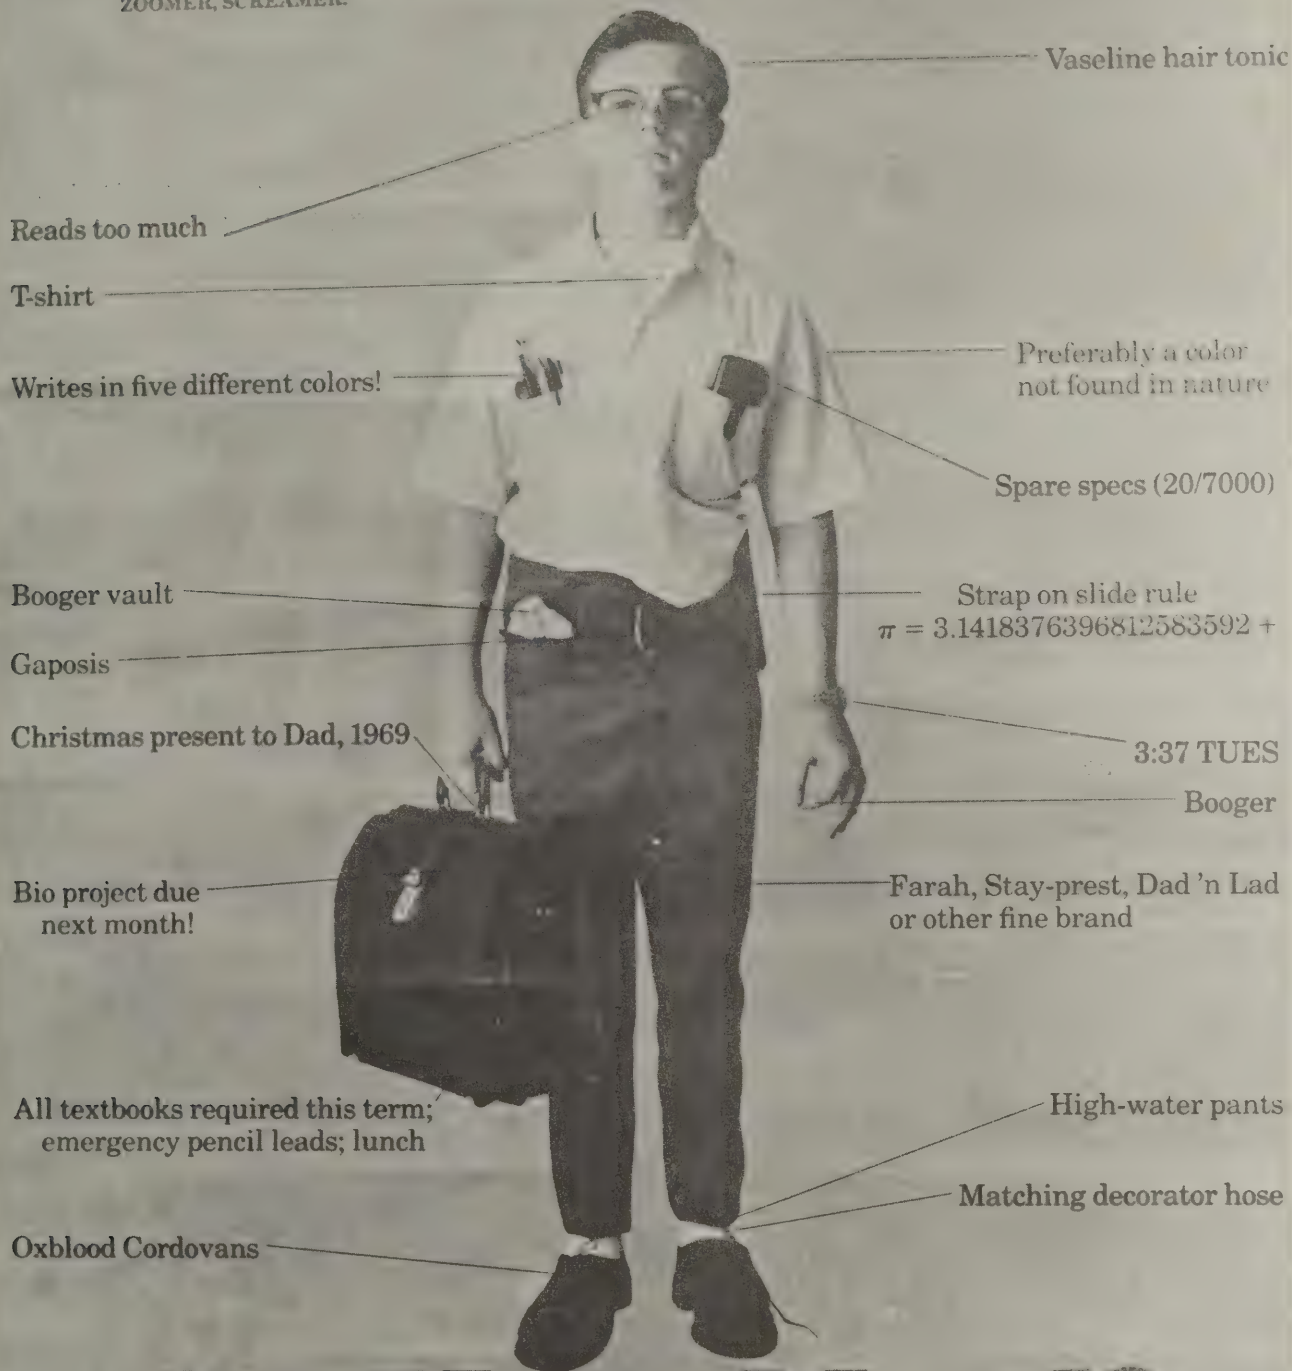

Where would it lead? How would we cope with the changes? A year to find out, a year to begin and to hope.

Are You a Nurd?

...Let's hope not. But just in case you've begun to notice telltale signs, such as a reawakened fascination with word problems or scratching mosquito bites until they bleed, take this simple test. If you have less than five (5) of these dead giveaways, you're probably a cool guy. If you have eight (8) or more, you're just kind of flakey. Ten (10) or more? Check for a leper colony near you.

NEW ATMOSPHERE WELCOMES FROSH

A new high school, new atmosphere, and a new administration, greeted the class of 1981. The freshman class was expected to be at classrooms when the bell rang but some students did not know where the classrooms were. So the upperclassmen helped them straighten out their problems, like help finding the classrooms. The freshman class officers were Joyce Barbour, President; Ray Henley Vice president; Sarah Watson, Secretary; and Neal Brodsky, Treasurer.

Class President Joyce Barbour and Vice-President Ray Henley.

SPORTS ARE PART OF STUDENT LIFE

School sports were an integral part of the freshman class. Numerous students were on the Junior Varsity teams. Some, played well enough to be on the varsity teams.

Some students said that they were under a little bit of pressure to be on teams. One student thought that some students did not try out for the teams because they were scared of being dropped.

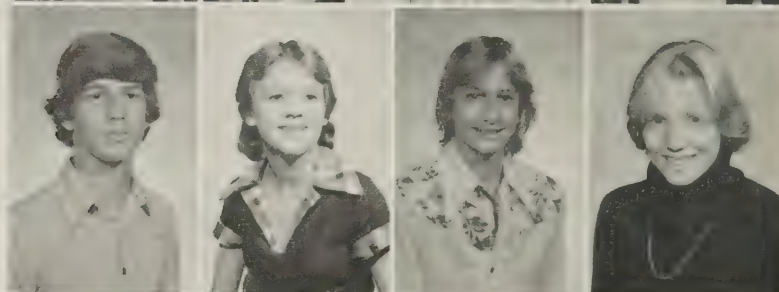

Freshman Chris Claud returns the volley.

FRESHMAN PARTICIPATE ON VARSITY TEAMS

Some outstanding students that made the Varsity teams were: Glenda Price, basketball; Joy Miller, softball; Terry O'Donohue, basketball; Olen Evans, football. All of the Varsity squads had at least one freshman participating on that team. The class of 1981 had good athletes to help the school move into the AA — District.

Returning to Poquoson High School students were not only greeted by new students but new teachers also. Overcrowding was becoming a common experience. The commons was crowded during the first lunch block, so were some of the classrooms. We were greeted with new administrators such as Dr. Roy Vorhauer and Mr. Chris Woolley.

The sophomore class officers were President, Kathy Taylor; Vice President, Patty Ann Hall; Secretary, Cindy Holloway; and Treasurer, Amy Hunt.

Physical Education teacher Duane Day commented, "The sophomore class was a good class to work with. They were more mature about their activities and their school."

Class President Kathy Taylor said, "I personally think that the class of 1980 will be the best class to graduate."

"It was a good class to work with."

FRIENDSHIP IS THE BEST

WHAT IS A FRIEND?

What is a friend? I'll tell you.
It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.

Your soul can go naked with him.
He seems to ask you to put on nothing,
only to be what you really are.
When you are with him, you do not have to be on your guard.
You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you.

He understand those contradictions in your nature that cause others to misjudge you.

He understands. You can weep with him, laugh with him, pray with him — through and underneath it all he sees, knows and loves you.

A friend — I repeat — is one with whom you dare to be yourself.

"Got your license yet?"

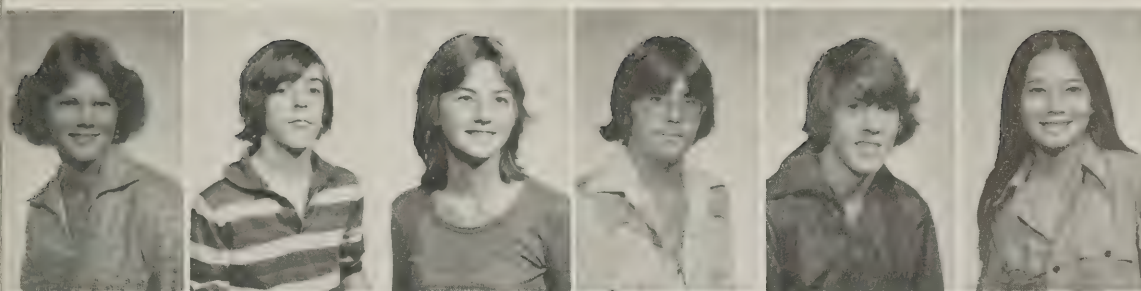

"What's the speed limit on the interstate?"

Those were some of the questions that came up during the day. This was the year for the sophomore class to drive in the great class of Drivers Education. As it turned out you had to drive depending on your average in the class. Students with A average were the first to drive.

After all of the awful classroom talks, films, you were then ready to drive behind the wheel. Then the big day came when you were eligible to obtain your license. You found yourself studying the night before to remember all of the details, signs, when to give the right-of-way to another car. That big TEST came to see if you were a sportsmanlike driver and could handle any situation that came up.

As a result of a survey taken, 57% of the sophomore class thought students should not get their license at an earlier age while 43% disagreed. Sixty-one percent thought that the population should not grow in Poquoson while 39% thought it should increase. Should the curfew change to a later hour? Eighty-six percent said the curfew should change but 14% did not agree. On a date should a girl have to pay her expenses? Fifty-three percent said the girl should not pay, 15% said the girl should pay, and 30% were neutral.

Enthusiasm and spirit were two words used to describe the junior class. After winning numerous pep rallies, the first Battle of the Bods, which was a contest of skill against other classes, and last but not least the first place award in float competition during Homecoming activities. Officers were: President, Donna Jurosky; Vice-President, Mark Bates; Secretary, Nanci Diggs; Treasurer, Connie Tracy.

At the start of the year financial difficulties were the biggest problems. But with the help of their fellow classmates and advisors, all turned out well. Some of the Fund raising projects that were successful were: the 50's dance, a slave sale, candy sales, bake sales and the usual Sadie Hawkins Day dance. All brought in the much needed money for the success of the Junior-Senior Prom. For the first time in years the prom was held in the high school gymnasium.

CLASS RINGS

The biggest highlight of all was receiving the class rings. After obtaining them the juniors rushed to the Commons area to get them turned. 78 times, saving the last one for that special person they admired most.

Ah . . . Food days, what every foreign language class looks forward to. In fact the French classes enjoyed their first one so much they decided to have another. Of course Dr. Vorhauer and several teachers just happened to drop in and were forced to sample a few of the dishes.

But don't think that's all the language classes did. The Spanish classes caroled throughout the school at Christmas time and some advanced Spanish students lectured to the beginning classes. Fourth year French acted out several plays, such as "La Farce de Cuvier" and "La Farce de Pate et de la Tarte".

A challenging, mind boggling test visited P.H.S. The Annual High School Mathematics Examination stunned students who were told by their de-ceiving teachers, "Sure anybody can do well." Well at least some knew what they were doing. Kim Fauske, with a score of 61, took first place. The test has been around for 29 years but this is the first time it's ever hit poquoson.

Richard Dodd with his project "Infrared Light Communications" took first place in math and physics and "Best in Show". More than 190 students participated in the Science Fair. First place for the various categories were: Robin McGlohn in chemistry, Kathie Smith in health, Scott Mungo in biology, and in microbiology Joel Gray and Stan Jones shared first place.

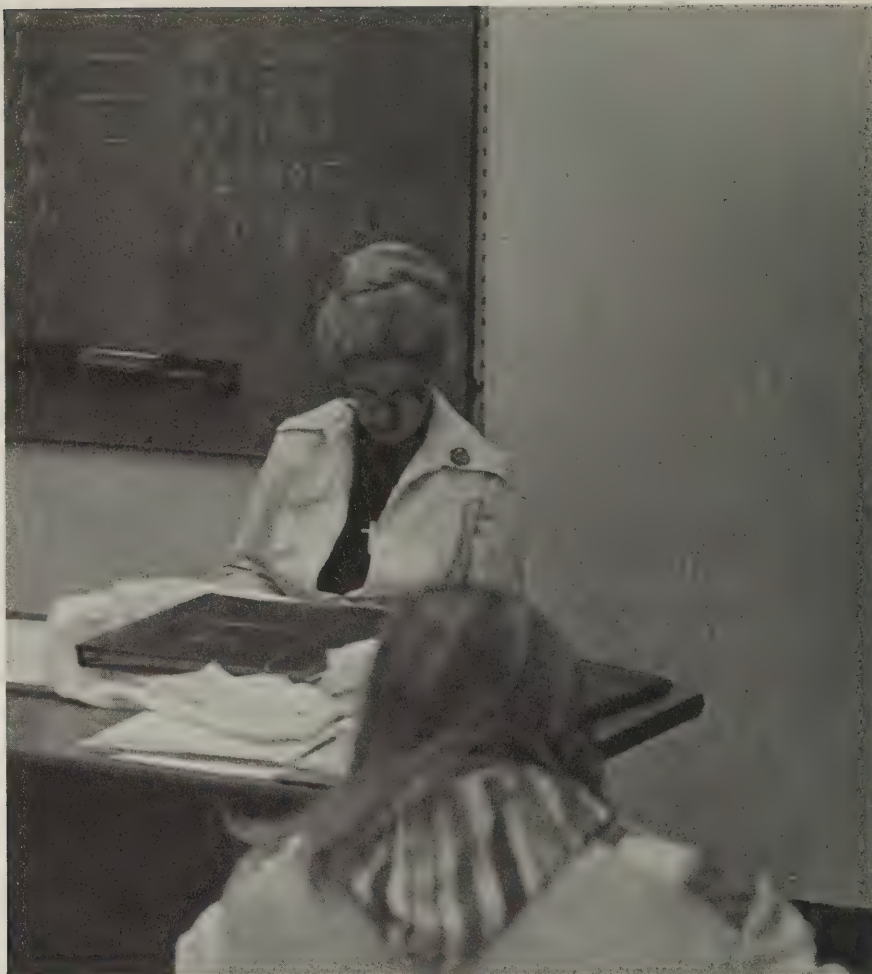

The Oceanography course taught by Mr. Wong is an advanced course which is not offered in many schools. Individuals choose one field of study which most interests him. According to Mr. Wong the purpose of this course is to promote environmental awareness and to use scientific research at the high school level.

Teachers of the Social Studies department said they tried to make the courses come alive and to get the students involved in their classes. One method of "getting them into the course" was by staging mock trials. One such was the Watergate trial, alive with White House plumbers and vivid arguments. Another method was by using magazines on current issues, like Newsweek.

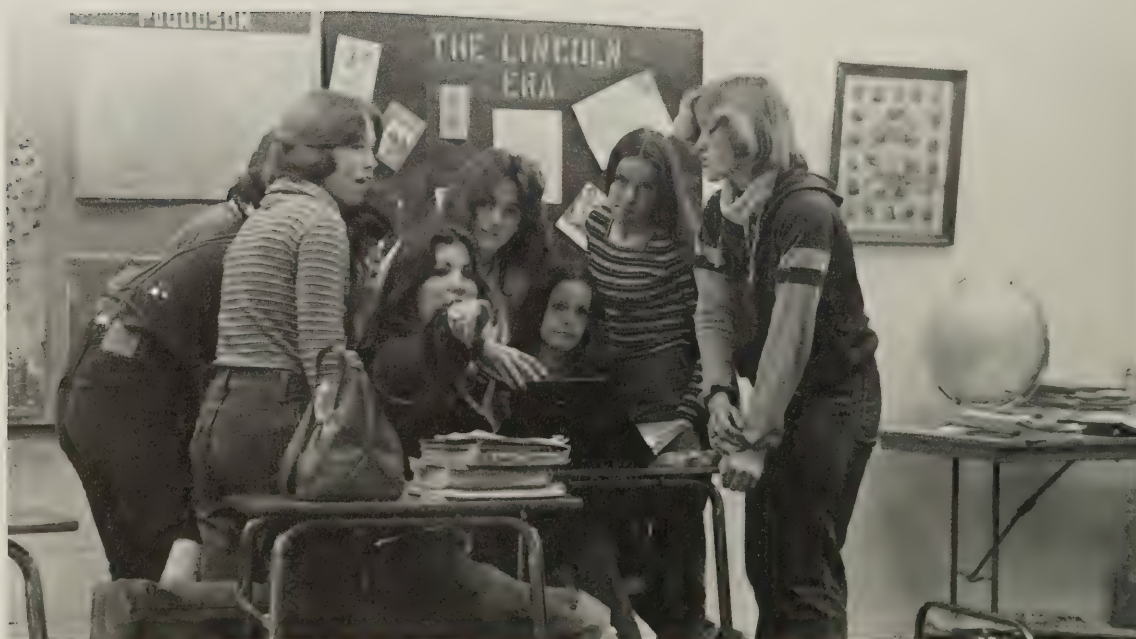

They also tried to organize a Social Studies Club which didn't quite get off the ground, but Miss Keech says, "they'll try again next fall."

"Oh the usual", that's how Mrs. Potts describes the P.E. classes and we all know what a "usual" P.E. class is like. You rush to get changed and in line before they take role, but you're always late. Then you're put through inhuman tortures called exercises, followed by a game of softball, tennis, volleyball, etc. By this time you're hot and tired but don't have time to take a shower. So you get dressed and drag to the next class. Isn't it amazing how through all of this you have fun.

Football '77 Began With a Win

Starting with a Bang!, the 1977 Football season began with a win by the Varsity. The team was very young and inexperienced; many team members stated that the team should improve over the next 2 years. Even though there were many losses this year, the enthusiasm and effort never failed. The team should be commended for their hard work and gallant efforts. Due to the inexperience and many injuries suffered by the Poquoson line-up, victory was hard to attain. Several team members who were great assets to the team were hurt early in the season. Roy Fox was taken out with a broken thumb, John Millan with a neck injury, and Rick Bachman with a torn ligament in his leg. These were large factors in the outcome of our season.

Finished With A Win

Our team was led by tri-captains Joe Abney, Randy Brookshire and Sean Rose, returning lettermen. Also, the '77 line-up consisted of All-district Punter, Tony Whitlow, who shows much promise for coming seasons, since this was his first year on the Varsity.

Although the record of 4 wins and 6 losses was not impressive, it gave the coaching staff an opportunity to evaluate the up-coming players. All the game experience gained by the young squad should be very helpful when Poquoson advances to Group AA. This will be a tougher league, but one team should be equal to the task by the experience gained.

Relieved to have a rest, tackle Jim Rigney is a picture of the true sportsman.

"Last Year's J.V. Football team had the ability to win, but did not put it together until the end of the season," stated quarterback Steve Green.

The team was much more than junior-sized. At the close of the season, the team had 3 wins, 2 ties and 3 losses. Poquoson beat Tabb and tied Gloucester — so maybe there is hope in the AA Division. There was much talent on the team of 49 players. Maybe football is Poquoson's "Sport for the Future."

GIRLS WIN ALL DISTRICT AND REGIONAL GAMES

It ended up another nearly perfect season for the GBBT as they defeated all the district teams and went on to win the regional title. The team ended the 1977 season second in the state. The twelve member team consisted of five seniors, two juniors, three sophomores, and two freshman. Coached by Mr. Dennis McNelis, the girls won all district and non-district games until the final state competition. That game ended 45-43 — a close game all the way through.

Homecoming Fantasy Rained Out

Do Humpty Dumpty, the Three Little Pigs, Moby Dick, and the Wookiee of 'Star Wars' sound like interesting topics for PHS students? Maybe not, but since the theme of Homecoming 1977 was 'Make Believe,' the students had to result to fantasy.

Because of a very heavy rain storm, the National Honor Society had to postpone Homecoming until Saturday.

Following the parade, the football team hosted King William. Half-time activities included a program presented by the Islander Band as well as the crowning of homecoming queen. Members of the homecoming court were: Freshman, Dolores Adams; Sophomore, Cindy Holloway; Junior, Donna Jurosky; and Seniors, Debbie Diggs, Karen Holloway, and Kathy Jurosky. Kathy Jurosky was crowned Homecoming Queen by Cathy Page, 1976 Homecoming Queen, and Mr. J. Roy Vorhauer, principal. The winning float was the Three Little Pigs, the Junior class entry.

After an unsuccessful attempt by Poquoson, the King William team won by a margin of 10 to 8. Immediately after the game, the music of 'Fever' was featured at the annual Homecoming Dance sponsored by the NHS.

50's Day Revives Old Styles

Poodle skirts, ponytails, leather jackets, and shades all came to PHS during the first 50's day celebration. Students had an opportunity to live an incredible fantasy as they returned to the days of the stroll, short shorts, and West Side Story. Later at the 50's dance they revived a few old dances too. It was a rare opportunity and enjoyed by all, even the faculty.

Top: Reviving an old dance, Marie Watkins and Steve Sather enjoy the 50's styles also. Middle: Look out Olivia Newton-John! Joan Penn, Melanie Rollins, and Deedie Ferguson look like a scene from Grease. Bottom: A motley crew gives its impression of 50's fashions.

"The greatest problem in doing Home To Mother, was the lack of time," stated Tres Matthews. Despite this problem, the show was quite entertaining and humorous. Michelle Barton felt that the "actors and actresses fit their parts and Kathy Garner commented, "The cast really had a blast working together." Mrs. VanDer-vort, drama coach added, "I was really pleased with the cooperation, interest, and enthusiasm the PHSdrama students have shown me."

Solo Actress Featured in Fall Play

Two one act plays, Sorry Wrong Number, and Home To Mother, were the fall productions presented by the Drama Club. It was quite an experience and a challenge."

The PHS Drama Department received an excellent rating with their production of Which Is the Way to Boston? Mrs. Vandervort, drama coach explained, "The rating was disappointing to the students, but we intend to join the AA district with enthusiasm and the sense of a challenge." Katrina Mizelle added, "We had a lot of fun and there were a lot of nice people." Kathy Martin commented, "We had stiff competition, but we did well." Kathy Garner ended with, "We did the best we could possibly do."

Play depicts Family Life

At the family council, Dan (Willie Mays), Jack (Jim Whitaker), Martha (Katrina Mizelle), and Lillian (Bonnie McDaniel) listen attentively, but disagree.

Anne (Marie Watkins) is displeased because Dad won't let her have silk stockings.

Displaying the virtues of family life, "Cheaper by the Dozen," the spring drama production, brought reminiscences of happier times. Based on the lives of the Frank Gilbreth family, the play dealt with family togetherness. Frank, father of the 12 children, was an efficiency expert. The comedy dealt with his attempts to make his family more time conscious and to give them a true sense of family. "I'm especially proud of the actors and actresses. The last night of the play went just as smooth as the first," declared sponsor Dot Vandevort. After the presentation, a party was held for the entire cast.

Dad (Vernie Krueger) brings home a phonograph so the children can learn foreign language through records, but the children have their doubts.

Assembling the entire family, Dad (Vernie Krueger) explains his plans to Jack (Jim Whitaker), Ernestine (Kathy Garner), Anne (Marie Watkins), Dan (Willie Mays), Martha (Katrina Mizelle), Lillian (Bonnie McDaniel), Fred (Steve Wagner) and Frank (Rick Bachman).

Frank (Vernie Krueger) tells his wife (Kathy Martin) their daughters will not wear those shocking "nylon stockings."

In a reflective mood, Ernestine (Kathy Garner) recalls the last time she saw her father.

FRENCH SETTING FOR PROM

Black and white were the predominate colors at the Junior-Senior Prom. Both girls and boys were partial to white. White tuxedos were in abundance. Top hats and canes also made the scene. The French decor included backdrops of Paris, individual tables with red tablecloths, awnings and candle dripped wine bottles, and even French street signs. "An Evening in Paris" was the theme for the annual event which took place in the high school gymnasium. Students danced to the music of Slapwater. Midway through the evening Prom King and Queen were announced. Queen Kathy Jurosky and King Steve Dunn were given one dance to themselves before others joined in.

Who is this? Oh yea, now I remember its Guy Garrett on Slave Day.

During the last few weeks of school everybody started to get "spring fever." The students did not want to do any more work since it was only a couple of days left. But oh yes, everybody must do some school work even up to the last day of school.

You could tell that summer was coming because of all of the sunburns in school. Returning lockers was a fun job since some people had different smells, writing, and a lot of scrap paper in the lockers. Senior week was a time when many students did not want to be caught doing anything that they would be punished for.

A whole bunch of pretty girls in this book. Vernie Kruger seems to be very much interested in this magazine.

HE'S GOT SEXY LEGS!!

Stan Jones may be late to class. Why is he so late?

He's got good looking legs.

Fred Birmingham, Stan Jones, and Guy Garrett cheer enthusiastically, with senior band members providing music.

Catching the football takes two hands.

On Slave Day, you do as you are told. Michelle Morgan demonstrates her willingness to follow directions.

City life displays itself, as Poquoson gets its stoplight.

Crazy George shows Anne Hunt his abilities of handling the ball while she does the hula hoop.

At the Fifty's Dance Marie Watkins, Susan Downs and Maresa Firth show their cheering techniques.

Below — Some people need four legs for a chair, but Jim Spivey only needs two.
